School Exposure :

School exposure programme is a pre-requisite for a trainee teacher. It is rightly regarded as the most crucial part of any teacher education programme. It provides a platform for trainee teachers to the real classroom situation. It involves an actual practice in engaging and exposing themselves in planning, preparing instructional materials for regular subject teachers. They have undergone two weeks school exposure programme in different types of schools.

This kind of programme is of crucial importance & have positive + remarkable impact on trainee teachers for further knowledge.
