ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the first place I would like to record my gratitude to my mentor Dr. Inderpreet Kaur for her advice, supervision, and crucial contribution, She has been a backbone for me in this research. Her involvement with her originality has triggered and nourished my intellectual maturity that I will benefit from, for a long time to come. Many thanks for her valuable advice in discussion, using her precious times to read this thesis and gave her critical comments about it in extremely friendly manner which helped me to improve myself without any worries. I was extraordinarily fortunate in having her as my Mentor. Ma'am, I am grateful in every possible way and hope to keep up our collaboration in the future. Thank you.

Where would I be without my family? My parents deserve special mention for their inseparable support and prayers. My Father, Mr. M.S. Gopinathan, in the first place is the person who has put the foundation of my learning character and encouraging me to always aim for higher goals. I wholeheartedly want to thank my parents in law for encouraging me to challenge my own limits and achieve more.

It is a pleasure to express my gratitude wholeheartedly to my better half Mr. Samcer Kishore Bhatnagar motivating me for hard work and always encouraging me by saying "ho jayega don't worry", for handling our baby and the household chores when I am busy with my studies and work.

My heartiest thanks to my friends Priyanka Grover and Anchal Gupta, for being unselfishly let their intelligence, passions, and ambitions collide with mine.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention names personally one by one.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I express my sincere gratitude to the entire law faculty of K. R. Mangalam University for guidance and mentorship during the LLM (Criminal Law) course duration. Much due to the consistent knowledge they imparted to us during the entire period of our program, I feel more confident regarding my understanding of criminal law. The most valuable lesson learnt was never to give up the learning process. Enhancing one's legal skills is vital as an advocate, lawyer, or law practitioner. The one-year-long course has helped me attain this objective. With such a background of rigorous exposure to criminal law, I have undertaken the final assignment of the LLM (Criminal Law) in the form of this dissertation.

The dissertation would not have come to its final shape without the frequent advice and assistance of my guide Dr Megha Garg whom I am deeply indebted. I further wish to thank all those who have been forthcoming in assisting me in the timely completion of my dissertation.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The preparation of this thesis has been a long journey, passing various milestones but as we approach the destination of this beautiful journey I am reminded of all the companions that walked beside me and the various strangers that I met along and who became a part of my life. I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all those who have touched my life along this journey for without them it wouldn't have been this remarkable and memorable experience.

Respected Dr. Megha Garg Assistant professor has been more than my research supervisor. She has been a mentor, a guide, a friend, a critic, and above all a teacher. She has blessed me with her constant support and invaluable suggestions throughout my research work. Her wide knowledge, logical understanding and enthusiasm in research motivated me to perform beyond my own expectations. Her constant encouragement helped me overcome all obstacles and made this all possible. It's been an honour working with her and I shall be forever indebted to her for her selfless guidance.

I am extremely grateful other faculty members of the department for providing me necessary guidance and help to carry out the research work.
