7.08 To discuss and approve the introduction of new subjects in programme of BBALLB (H), BALLB(H), BCOMLLB(H) and LLB(H) to be implemented from academic year 2020-21

According to the Legal Education Rules 2018, a law school can offer the undergraduate programme with or without specializations. With a view to align the curriculum with legal education rules School of Legal Studies has proposed specializations in Business Laws, Criminal Laws, Constitutional Laws & International Laws with below mentioned courses in the programme of BBALLB (H), BALLB(H), BCOMLLB(H) and LLB(H) after having thorough discussion in school meeting and also on the basis of suggestion received from various stakeholders offered from academic year 2020-21.

Moreover for improving soft skills of students and also to give students compulsory practical exposure, Introduction to Computers & IT, Office Automation Lab and summer internships has also been proposed to be added in course scheme that is to be implemented from academic year 2020-21.

Further As per mandate of UGC, it was suggested in the meeting that Disaster Management (SLDM301A) course would be taught as compulsory course in First semester (Credit 3) to undergraduate students from academic session 2020-21 onwards. For admission years 2019, Disaster Management (SLDM301A) would be taught in forth coming academic year 2020-21 in odd semester i.e., in third semester and for admission year 2018 Disaster Management (SLDM301) would be taught in forth coming academic year 2020-21 in odd semester i.e. fifth semesters.
