Contact Hours	30 Hours
Prerequisite	Nil

Course Description

In this course, we will explore the aesthetics of cinema, the concepts behind storytelling and various elements of a film. Students will discover the elements of what makes a 'good' film and understand the role movies play in our daily lives and in society. The course will also focus on the vital roles that directors and critics play in the movie making process.

Through this course, student will be able to recognize the types of films, their impact on society, and their roles in daily lives. Students will discuss the concepts behind storytelling, cinematography and identify ways sound contributes to movies. Students will get to know the various types of movie genres and Elements of a Film. Book adaptation into films and journey of cinema from theatre to Netflix and i-phones will be discussed. Literacy elements in Film, themes and symbolism, metaphor and allegory, irony and how storytelling makes the audience care about movies will be essential part of the course. Various movie genres like mysteries and film noir, horror, fantasy and science fiction, romantic comedy, musicals and documentaries will be taught. The role of the director as facilitator, auteur theory will be discussed.

The course will make students critically interpret films and clearly express those interpretations orally and in writing. They will demonstrate knowledge of the historical development and cultural impact of film as an art form.
