Introduction

Through resolution 47/196, adopted on 22 December 1992, the UN General Assembly declared 17 October as the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty and invited all states to devote the Day to presenting and promoting, as appropriate in the national context, concrete activities about the eradication of poverty and destitution.

In order to commemorate International Day for the Eradication of Poverty 2022, the School of Education in collaboration with Human Touch Foundation organizes a presentation competition on "Poverty Alleviation Strategies in Developing Countries", where students from various institutes will be invited to integrate STEM into their presentations by adding their ideas on different strategies for Poverty Alleviation in line with SDG 1 and other related SDGs.

Objective

The major objectives of the presentation competition are to develop confidence and communication skills among student-teachers through the presentation competition and also advance analytical and synthesis skills of student-teachers in doing case studies of action plan of various developing countries on poverty alleviation

Background

According to the World Bank estimates on poverty, India has 456 million or 42% of its population living below the new international poverty line of $1.25 a day.

33% of the global poor (1 billion people) now reside in India.

Poverty in India has reduced by 10% over the last 5 years.

However, it still is a large population of the country.
