MESSAGE FROM THE LEADERSHIP

Challenges are stepping stones that help you develop your strength, character, and resolve—not obstacles. Have faith in your abilities, maintain your curiosity, and don't be afraid of failure—it's a necessary component of learning.

Remain focused, surround yourself with positive people, and treat yourself with kindness at all times. You just need to keep going; you don't need to be flawless.

Dear Students,

Every day offers a fresh opportunity to develop, learn, and get closer to your goals. Even though university life can be challenging, keep in mind that you are capable of far more than you may realize. Challenges are stepping stones that help you develop your strength, character, and resolve—not obstacles. Have faith in your abilities, maintain your curiosity, and don't be afraid of failure—it's a necessary component of learning. Remain focused, surround yourself with positive people, and treat yourself with kindness at all times. You just need to keep going; you don't need to be flawless. Support and encouragement are always available from the Office of Student Welfare. Every little step you take counts, and your trip matters. Thus, continue to be inspired, motivated, and to believe in oneself at all times.

You've got this!

Warm wishes,

Mr. Abhishek Gupta

MESSAGE FROM DEAN, SCHOOL OF LEGAL STUDIES

I would like to give special recognition to our Moot Court teams. The dedication required to prepare for these competitions is remarkable. Countless hours are devoted to researching intricate legal precedents, crafting compelling arguments, and perfecting delivery.

Dear Readers,

This past quarter has been truly inspiring, showcasing the dedication that permeates every part of our school. When I walk through the halls, I see more than just students and faculty; I witness a vibrant ecosystem of learning, growth, and steadfast commitment to justice. Beyond academic achievements, what stands out most is the intellectual curiosity many of you demonstrate—critically analysing statutes and proposing innovative solutions to societal challenges.

I would like to give special recognition to our Moot Court teams. The dedication required to prepare for these competitions is remarkable. Countless hours are devoted to researching intricate legal precedents, crafting compelling arguments, and perfecting delivery. This quarter, our teams competed in several prestigious national and international moot court events, frequently advancing to later rounds and earning well-deserved accolades. These accomplishments are not just about winning; they represent the development of essential advocacy skills, quick thinking, and resilience.

While academic excellence remains crucial, a comprehensive legal education extends well beyond the classroom. Our students have embraced this philosophy wholeheartedly, making meaningful progress in a variety of co-curricular activities that deepen their understanding of the law and their future roles as legal professionals.

I must also commend our outstanding faculty members. Their dedication to mentoring and supporting our students is truly admirable. Each professor brings extensive knowledge and experience, creating an environment where students feel encouraged to explore and grow. Faculty mentorship goes beyond academics—they are genuinely invested in your personal and professional growth. Whether through one-on-one meetings or informal conversations, our faculty are always ready to support you on your path.

Best Wishes,

Prof. (Dr) Kaveri Sharma

Dean,

School of Legal Studies

MESSAGE FROM CHAIR PROFESSOR, MOTILAL NEHRU CHAIR

Highlights this quarter include the organization of Special Lectures under the Motilal Nehru Chair, which brought together experts and students for dialogue and collaboration. Faculty and student achievements were at the forefront, with significant contributions to research, conferences, and public service activities.

It gives me great pleasure to share the April–June 2025 edition of our quarterly newsletter with all members of our academic community. In this dynamic quarter, the Motilal Nehru Chair continued its tradition of fostering scholarly engagement and facilitating meaningful discussions on pressing legal and policy issues.

Highlights this quarter include the organization of Special Lectures under the Motilal Nehru Chair, which brought together experts and students for dialogue and collaboration. Faculty and student achievements were at the forefront, with significant contributions to research, conferences, and public service activities. The Chair also collaborated with national and international partners, emphasizing our commitment to nurturing global perspectives and advancing excellence in legal education.

Amid these accomplishments, heartfelt appreciation goes to every faculty member, student, and staff whose ongoing dedication sustains our vibrant academic environment. We look forward to building upon the momentum of this quarter, continuing to promote innovation and inclusivity in the months ahead.

Thank you, and best wishes to all!

EVENTS' CORNER

WORKSHOP ON EFFICIENT ADR IN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The School of Legal Studies organized a workshop on "Efficient ADR in Intellectual Property" on 9th April 2025, aimed at bridging academic learning with real-world practice in the fields of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). The workshop was led by Advocate Anshul Mittal, Supreme Court and High Court practitioner, who highlighted the growing role of arbitration and mediation in resolving complex IP disputes efficiently and cost-effectively. He emphasized their importance in today's innovation-driven era. Adding further depth, Senior Advocate Sandeep Vats shared his rich experience from the Supreme Court, illustrating the judiciary's evolving approach toward ADR in IP disputes through real-life case studies. His interactive dialogue encouraged students to critically engage with ADR beyond traditional litigation. The workshop proved to be highly enriching, offering students and participants practical insights into ADR mechanisms and their increasing relevance in the field of intellectual property.

PARLIAMENT VISIT ON 17 APRIL 2025

On 17th April 2025, the School of Legal Studies, K.R. Mangalam University, Gurugram, organized an educational visit to the Parliament of India, New Delhi, with 51 students accompanied by faculty Dr. Aarti Lamba, Dr. Amrita Singh, Assistant Professors, SOLS and Dr. Inderpreet Kaur, Associate Dean, SOLS, K.R. Mangalam University, Gurugram and student coordinators. The purpose of the visit was to give students firsthand exposure to the functioning of the Indian legislative process, while also introducing them to the historical and architectural significance of both the old and new Parliament buildings. During the visit, students observed live parliamentary sessions, toured the Central Hall where landmark decisions like the drafting of the Constitution took place, and engaged in interactive discussions with Parliament staff. This experience helped students bridge their classroom learning with real-world governance, deepened their understanding of India's democratic system, and inspired critical thinking about the role of law and policymaking. The visit proved highly enriching, fostering appreciation for democratic institutions and aligning with the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals of quality education and strong institutions.

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Advocate Harshvardhan Malik

(Batch 2013-18), Former Vice-president, Rohtak Bar Association.

I am deeply honored to contribute a message for the university newsletter as an alumnus and as the Former Vice-President of the Rohtak Bar Association. My years at the university laid the foundation for my journey in the legal profession, instilling in me not only academic knowledge but also the values of integrity, discipline, and commitment to justice. As practicing advocates, we continue to uphold the ideals of the legal fraternity while adapting to the ever-evolving challenges of our justice system. I firmly believe that the role of legal professionals extends beyond the courtroom — it lies equally in serving society and protecting the principles of fairness and equality. I take pride in being associated with an institution that continues to nurture bright minds and inspire them to pursue excellence. To the current students, I encourage you to remain curious, courageous, and compassionate as you move forward in your careers. Your dedication and hard work will be the true measure of your success.

Warm regards,

Advocate, Harshvardhan Malik,
Former Vice-president, Rohtak bar Association.

Ms. Anuradha

(Batch 2014-19), Assistant Professor, Jagannath University

It gives me immense joy to reconnect with my alma mater through this newsletter. My journey from being a student here to serving as an Assistant Professor at Jagannath University has been both fulfilling and inspiring. The values, guidance, and academic foundation I received at this institution have played a pivotal role in shaping my professional and personal growth.

I am proud to see the university continuing its tradition of nurturing talent and encouraging holistic development.

To the present students, I would say — embrace every opportunity to learn, engage actively, and remain steadfast in your pursuit of excellence. Your time here will truly define the path you walk ahead.

With warm regards,

Ms. Anuradha
Assistant Professor, Jagannath University

MOU SIGNED WITH NATIONAL FORENSIC SCIENCE UNIVERSITY ON 15 APRIL 2025

On 15th April, 2025, K.R. Mangalam University (KRMU) made history, as the first private university in India, to sign an MoU with National Forensic Science University (NFSU) under the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India. The signing ceremony took place at Vigyan Bhawan in the esteemed presence of Shri Bandi Sanjay Kumar, Hon'ble Minister of State for Home Affairs, Government of India, along with the Vice Chancellor of NFSU and campus directors from all NFSU campuses.

This achievement is the result of the dedicated efforts of Prof. Mehraj Mir, Chair Professor, Moti Lal Nehru Chair, KRMU, Prof Purvi Pokhriyal (Director, NFSU, Delhi campus) and Dr. Komal Yadav from NFSU, whose hard work and initiative made this collaboration possible. The MoU was signed by Dr. Rahul Sharma, Registrar, KRMU with Prof

(Dr.) Kaveri Sharma, Dean of the School of Legal Studies, KRMU and Mr. Nitin Tyagi, Assistant Professor, School of Basic and Applied Sciences, KRMU.
