Introduction:

On the 18th of October, 2023, the School of Legal Studies at KR Mangalam University conducted an extension activity on "Reducing Inequality/Advancing Women Rights with DLSA". The activity was aimed at imparting knowledge to the students of SOLS of K. R. Mangalam University about what are the inequalities that the women is facing and how the rights can be advanced along with the recent amendments in legislation. The main objective of the extension activity was to equip students and local women with an in-depth understanding of women rights. The activity aimed at creating awareness among the present young minds and the future leaders of our country. The event was conducted offline, and an associate from DLSA, Adv. Arun She keen addressed the crowd by giving a brief introduction on constitutional rights given to the women in our country. 22 students attended the workshop and later gave their feedbacks on the activity conducted.

The activity was highly interactive and informative and gave students a brief idea regarding the same. The outcome of the event was that it provided the students with a nuanced understanding on fundamental and constitutional rights of women in India and its recent amendments. The activity also helped in creating awareness among the students.

The event can be expanded to include more interactive sessions and discussions on recent case studies and amendments. students can be galvanized to participate in legal research and develop innovative solutions to combat issues related to inequality against women in the society. 'The event can be organized periodically to keep the students abreast of the latest developments in the field of women rights in India
